Hymn Inspirations

It may be at morn, when the day is a-waking,
When sunlight through darkness & shadow is breaking,
That Jesus will come in the fullness of glory,
To receive from the world His own.

Oh, Lord Jesus, how long? how long?
'Til we shout the glad song;
Christ returneth! Hallelujah! Hallelujah, Amen!

NCF FAMILY MATTERS

New Covenant Weekly Bulletin & Newsletter

God is My Source

When Oral Roberts entered the ministry by taking a small church, he would preach that God would supply all of their needs, but he was not demonstrating that in his own life. "Then one day, I told the board I had figured up the absolute minimum required for me and my family to exist....They granted my request to the letter.

"For the next several weeks, we squeezed by until I realized I was limiting God by looking to the board for my supply. I discovered resentment in my heart. Why didn't they raise me? Why didn't they see the needs of my family?"

"One day I saw that the board was not my source; God was. God wanted to meet my needs...I should start looking to Him who promised to supply all my needs. I should start looking to this group as only an instrument or means God would use. When I faced needs, I should look to God in a direct way and trust Him to help me through any means He chose....When we think that our friend, or our employer, or an employee is the source of our supply, we are dealing with the means and not the Source."

—Excerpts from MIRACLE OF SEED-FAITH by Oral Roberts

We Welcome You, Our Visiting Guests

Thank you for joining us for our morning service. We are so glad you are here. It's our desire that you will sense God's presence and that He would bless and refresh you today.

Please be sure to look through the Welcome Packet for more information concerning our church. If you don't mind, would you fill out the visitor's card and place it in the offering? It's our promise to treat your information respectfully.

After the service, there will be a prayer team at the front who would love to pray about any concerns that you have. If you have never invited Jesus into your life and made Him Lord, ask someone on the prayer team to pray with you.

A MERRY

At a senior citizens' function, I watched an older fellow ease his wife ahead of him in line. "You ask for the tickets, dear," he told her. "You look older than I do."

Seeming to ignore his uncomplimentary remark, she stepped up to the counter. "I'd like two tickets, please," she said loudly. "One for me, and one for my father." —Jean Shauer
