More Blessed to Give Than Receive

In the words of Oral Roberts, he said he used to wonder what Jesus meant when He said, "it is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). It seemed contrary to real life. Our needs were so many that any small gift thrilled us. It was a joy to receive. Then one day I began to see what Jesus meant. While facing a need, I had a deep impression that I should give a certain amount of money to God's work. After I gave it, I felt a warm glow all over. It was pure joy. [Within just a short time, a man came and gave me a gift that was seven times what I had given to that ministry.] As I reflected on how God multiplied my gift seven times over, I began to realize what Jesus meant when He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." For what we receive is not multiplied, but only what we give!

I still get excited about this principle of Seed-Faith. I have discovered nothing that has meant more to people than this; it is more productive to give than to receive. Giving was the lifestyle of Jesus. Giving is the logical outgrowth of looking to God as your Source, of loving Him enough to give, and of giving as seed that you may receive.

Having Goat for Dinner?

A young couple invited their minister to dinner after church. While the couple was in the kitchen, the minister asked their son if he knew what they were going to have. "Sure," he said, "we're having goat." "Goat!" said the minister. "Are you sure?" "Yup," said the boy. "I heard my dad say, 'Now's as good a time as any to have the old goat for dinner.'"
